As per Regulation 23(4) of the listing regulations, all Material Related Party Transactions shall require approval of the shareholders through resolution and no related party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

b. Consideration by the Committee in approving the proposed Transactions

In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Committee will consider the following factors among others, to the extent relevant to the transaction:

- i) Whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on arm's length basis;
- ii) Whether the Related Party Transaction is beneficial to the Company;
- iii) iii) Whether the transaction is a Material Related Party Transaction;
- iv) Whether there are any business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the alternative available, if any;
- v) Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of the Directors/ KMP;
- vi) Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk issue.

The Audit Committee, at the time of approval of RPTs, shall take into consideration the certificate to be placed before it by the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer or any other KMP of the Company, confirming that the RPT(s) to be entered into are not prejudicial to the interest of public shareholders of the Company and the terms and conditions of the proposed RPT(s) are not unfavourable to the Company, compared to terms and conditions, had similar transaction(s) been entered into with an unrelated party. This certificate shall be placed before the Committee in terms of the Industry Standards

c. Determination of Arm's Length Transaction

In order to determine whether a transaction is at arm's length, the Audit Committee/Board will exercise its own judgement based on its assessment from the information furnished and the relevant factors concerning each such transaction. The Audit Committee may also rely on third party professional certifications including latest available reports on pricing carried out by independent consultants to ascertain whether the transaction is at arm's length. For new transactions, the Committee may determine the appropriate methods.

d. Ordinary Course of Business

Related Party Transactions that are part of regular business activities shall be considered to be in the ordinary course of business. The criteria that may be considered for this purpose are as below:

- i) Nature and scope of the transaction and its consistency in general with the operations of the Company;
- ii) Possibility of entering such transaction with third parties;
- iii) Size of the transaction in relation to the prevailing market.

4.3 Approval by the Board

If the Committee determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Board, or if the Board in any case elects to review any such matter or if it is mandatory under any law for the Board to approve the Related Party Transaction, then the Board shall consider and approve the Related Party Transaction at a meeting and the considerations set forth above shall apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter, with such modifications as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

4.4 Omnibus Approval by the Committee

In case of frequent/ regular/ repetitive transactions which are in the normal course of business of the Company, the Committee may grant omnibus approval. While granting the approval, the Audit Committee shall satisfy itself of the need for the omnibus approval and that it is in the interest of the Company. The omnibus approval shall specify the following:

- a. Name of the Related Party;
- b. Nature of the transaction;
- c. Period of the transaction;
- d. Maximum amount of the transaction that can be entered into;
- e. Indicative base price/ current contracted price and allowable variation in price, if any;
- f. Such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit.

Such transactions will be deemed to be pre-approved and may not require any further approval of the Audit Committee for each specific transaction unless the price, value of material terms of the contract or arrangement have been varied/amended. Any proposed variations/ amendments to these factors shall require a prior approval of the Committee.

Further, where the need for the Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and all prescribed details are not available, Committee may grant omnibus approval subject to the value per transaction not exceeding Rs 1,00,00,000 (Rupees One crore only). The details of such transactions shall be reported at the next meeting of the Audit Committee for ratification.

Further, the Committee shall on an annual basis review and assess such transactions including the limits to ensure that they are in compliance with this Policy. The omnibus approval shall be valid for a period of one year and fresh approval shall be obtained after the expiry of one year.

Remuneration and sitting fees paid by the Company or its subsidiary to its Director, Key Managerial Personnel or Senior Management, except who is part of promoter or promoter group, shall not require approval of the Audit Committee provided that the same is not material.

4.5 Ratification of Related party transaction

The members of committee who are Independent directors may ratify related party transactions within three months from the date of the transaction, or in the immediate next meeting of the audit committee, whichever is earlier, subject to following conditions:

1. The value of the ratified transaction(s) with a related party, whether entered into individually or taken together, during a financial year shall not exceed rupees one crore
2. the transaction is not material
3. rationale for inability to seek prior approval for the transaction shall be placed before the audit committee at the time of seeking ratification
4. the details of ratification shall be disclosed along with the disclosures of related party transactions
5. any other condition as specified by the audit committee.

Provided that failure to seek ratification of the audit committee shall render the transaction voidable at the option of the audit committee and if the transaction is with a related party to any director, or is authorised by any other director, the director(s) concerned shall indemnify the listed Company against any loss incurred by it.

5. Non-compliance of the Policy

If a Related Party Transaction is entered into by the Company without being approved under the policy, the same shall be reviewed by the Committee. The Committee shall evaluate the transaction and all options available to the Company including ratification, revision or termination of the transaction.

The Committee shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such Related Party Transaction to the Committee under the Policy, and take such action as it may deem appropriate.

A Related Party Transaction entered into without approval under this Policy shall not be deemed to violate this policy, or to be invalid or unenforceable, so long as the transaction is approved or ratified as soon as reasonably practical after any Officer/ Director of the Company becomes aware of such transaction.

In a case where the Committee determines not to ratify a Related Party Transaction that has been commenced without approval, the Committee may direct additional actions including, but not limited to immediate discontinuation of the transaction. In connection with such review, the Committee has the authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of the Policy.

6. Disclosures
